

Editors' Association of Canada/Association canadienne des réviseurs Membership Policy

Effective date: June 2021

Policy purpose

The purpose of this policy is to define membership entitlements and fee levels in the Editors' Association of Canada/Association canadienne des réviseurs.

Policy statement

It is the policy of the Editors' Association of Canada to set membership entitlements and fees in a way that provides maximum benefit to members and the association.

Applicability

This policy applies to members of the Editors' Association of Canada. It does not apply to affiliates, who are not members.

It can be used by prospective members, members, the national executive council and the national office staff.

Responsibility

Membership is governed by section 2 of Bylaw No. 1 (2014). There is one class of members in the association.

Membership fees are set at three levels:

- Member (full membership fee)
- Emeritus member (reduced membership fee)
- Honorary life member (no membership fee)

Regardless of fee level, all members are eligible to access all member rights, benefits, services, products and discounts available from the association (additional criteria and/or fees may apply).

The rules regarding fees, levels, rights, benefits and services are found in the Membership Procedures document.
